He ordered the boys to tie her up and beat her until she learned to speak softly and know her place she was strung up as oshakuro walked back inside the house leaving his boys behind to deal with her as she was beaten her children try to plead on her behalf moaning and crying for them to stop they pray for her soul as they do not know how much more brutality she can take as she continues to scram and moan she calls for help and continues to cry out for her dead husband making them hit her harder still she screams accusations and curses the bamboo boys and their leader to silence her they pull her down from the cross strip her and gag her before putting her back up to the cross

They beat her with a large plank bruising and braking her body she goes silent as the gnashes in her body are too deep sheu2019s bleeding to death the boys not much caring and wanting to further humiliate the woman pull her down and drag her now lifeless body to a far off corner of the darkness where the six boys take their time defiling her further covering her with their filth filing every orifice with their hungry parts when they were finished they dumped her body like some left over and rotten animal to be discarded without a care before going back to join the rest of the boys

The shodeke children wept in their cages they shook the in anger the boys thinking they could scare them told them to be quiet or they would end up like their parents the young women surprised the men telling them that they would rather be with their parents that death was better than living in the hell that these supposed true boys of bamboo had created since oshakuro murdered the good and kind leader of bamboo village making himself the new leader all that the people have known is fear and death

Before they had rules and laws a constitution a good home and good things now it was all terror and death at their hands better to be dead the women did not care what the reaction would be they would say their peace they had already made their peace with the all mighty

The bamboo boys looked at the ground unable to say anything at the true word of these young shodeke women
